Report of the OSS Chair for the Year Ended 30 June 2021

The global challenges of COVID-19 continued to plague the Old Stoic Society during the course of the year, with activity halted once again due to national restrictions and lockdowns. In the face of adversity, the OSS delivered a pared back programme of remote events, online services and an engaging magazine to inspire our members during the challenges of the Pandemic.

I would like to begin with a word of thanks to Charlie Clare (Chatham 94) and Arron Quainton who stood in for Anna Semler (Nugent 05) during her maternity leave. Charlie and Arron faced the unenviable task of keeping the wheels turning during one of our most challenging years to date. The Michaelmas Term saw great uncertainty for events, followed by a second national lockdown early in the New Year. As the Summer Term dawned, more activity became possible and Charlie and Arron worked carefully to get things moving over the course of the summer. We are very grateful indeed for their hard work and determination.

Due to the cancellation of the majority of our events, we took the difficult decision to furlough our excellent OS Events Coordinator, Sasha Moss, for the majority of the Lent Term. Sasha re-joined the office in the Summer Term to restart her essential contribution to the administration of the Society and the planning of our annual Events Programme. I would like to thank Sasha for her continued commitment to the Society during the unusual circumstances endured during the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Once again, our Committees have continued to meet online so the running of the Society has continued unhindered by restrictions. A great many thanks to all our volunteers who have worked tirelessly over the course of the year. It would be impossible to deliver our services to Old Stoics without the support of those who give their time to help. All members are welcome to lend a hand if they wish, please do let me know if this is of interest.

From 1 July 2020 to 30 June 2021, we were able to hold just five Old Stoic events, four of which were remote events held online. These included a magic demonstration, two tastings with Chase Distillery and a wine tasting. In the summer term, we were able to host a cross country race at Stowe. 127 Old Stoics were involved in these events.

With the absence of in person OS Events, work was centred around growing Stowe Connect. This is a new online Alumni service which allows Old Stoics to connect, share and network within a closed online group. To date, Stowe Connect has gained 1595 new users, with 76% of these members happy to help with mentoring recent leavers. If you have yet to sign up, please do so at www.stoweconnect.co.uk. We will continue to encourage engagement through this portal and will become increasingly reliant on it for communications and news, alongside email and our other social media platforms, which continue to flourish.

The Corinthian explored the theme of Sustainability and how to encourage action to reduce climate change. A great many thanks to Arron Quinton who took on the editing of this edition and delivered a number of thought-provoking articles. Huge thanks to those who submitted their news, helping to bring the magazine to life.

As more activity becomes possible, planned developments for the next 12 months include: kickstarting the OSS Events Programme and encouraging members to attend activities in person; re-establishing commercial income for The Corinthian to offset printing costs; working with Stowe to improve the OS merchandise offering and online store; improving the networking potential of Stowe Connect and growing the audience; increasing our the mentoring programme; increasing participation in women's sport and finalising plans for Stowe's Centenary celebrations.

As my time as OSS Chair draws to a close, I would like to offer thanks to everyone involved in making the Society such a strong network upon which we can all rely. In the face of adversity, I was proud to see our members pull together, change and adapt to the challenges faced during the COVID-19 Pandemic in a truly stoic fashion. It has been an honour to serve and I leave ongoing projects in very safe hands under the leadership of our incoming OSS Chair, Luke Chauveau (Cobham 87). I wish him every success in his new role.

Report of the Director for the Year Ended 30 June 2021

Once again, these accounts reflect an unusual year in which OSS activity was greatly impacted by COVID 19. Events were limited due to Government restrictions, with five occasions taking place within the year, four of which were remote events hosted online. The OSS Events Co-ordinator was furloughed for the majority of the year. Charlie Clare and Arron Quainton managed the Society during Anna Semler's maternity leave, which coincided with this accounting period.

Income for the year came in at a healthy level, totalling £185,974. Subscription income was significantly higher than the previous year at £175,873, reflecting numbers increasing within the School. Advertising income for The Corinthian Magazine remained static, totalling £2,610. This is in line with the prior year's income of £2,514 and reflects businesses struggling during COVID 19. Costs for printing the magazine were £41,389, a marginal increase on the prior year figure.

COVID-19 restrictions had a great impact on expenditure for the year, predominantly due to fewer events taking place and reduced staffing costs. In addition, OS Sports teams were unable to play during the course of the year, so, with the exception of the OS Football team, funding was not allocated. OSS Committees met remotely, lowering associated costs and travel expenses. Significant spends were made on Graduway IT software which facilitates Stowe Connect, these include a set-up cost of £4,440 and annual fee of £4735. Reduced activity due to COVID-19 resulted in a large saving, with the accounts for the year ended 30 June 2021 showing a surplus of £87,301.

£50,000 of this surplus will be allocated towards the Centenary Fund to ensure that a well-rounded programme of activity is available for Old Stoics around the word during Stowe 100th Anniversary Year. The remaining surplus will be allocated to the Old Stoic Benevolent Trust and General Reserve. A number of in-person events have been rescheduled for the Michaelmas Term, which will result in higher event costs for the coming year. The budget for the coming year reflects these increased costs but maintains the intention for income to break even whilst efforts are made to rebuild Old Stoic Society activity in the aftermath of COVID-19.

Report of the Independent Examiner for the Year Ended 30 June 2021

We have examined the balance sheet and income and expenditure accounts for the year ended 30 June 2021 and the accompanying notes which have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF OFFICERS AND EXAMINER

The officers of the Society are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements. It is our responsibility to form an opinion, based on our examination, on those statements and to report to you.

BASIS OF OUR OPINION

We conducted our examination in accordance with professional standards. An examination includes, on a test basis, a review of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of any significant estimates and judgements made by the officers in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether accounting policies are appropriate to the Society's circumstances are consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We performed our examination so as to obtain such information and explanations which we considered necessary to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement for whatever reason. We also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

OPINION

In our opinion the financial statements are free from material misstatement and give a true and fair view of the state of the Society's affairs at 30 June 2021 and of its income and expenditure for the year ended on that date.
