1st Prize

We salute you Captain Tom Moore,
For your service during the war,
And these steps you have trodden,
Which will not be forgotten,
From here to each shining shore!

All Entries:

We salute you Captain Tom Moore
You have challenged us all to explore
What we too might achieve
If, like you, we could leave
On that journey "beyond our back door".
Simon Carroll (Temple 80), NHS GP

We salute you, Captain Tom Moore:
You humbly stepped out your back door,
So you must be amazed
At how much you have raised
On your one hundred lap garden tour!
Simon Carroll (Temple 80), NHS GP

We salute you Captain Tom Moore,
With each step you take on your tour,
For from the get-go,
You have been in the flow;
Who knows how much more is in store?
Colin Boardman (Grenville 87)

We salute you Captain Tom Moore,
Your achievement's hard to ignore,
You're our new Robin Hood,
Of the great and the good,
And your aim is so true, to be sure!
Colin Boardman (Grenville 87)

We salute you Captain Tom Moore,
You epitomise what we adore;
You've put on a display,
In such a sweet humble way,
That each step needs an encore!
Colin Boardman (Grenville 87)

We salute you Captain Tom Moore,
From the mountains down to the shore;
You've had a good climb,
And made your hundred in time,
So here's wishing you a few more!
Colin Boardman (Grenville 87)

We salute you, Captain Tom Moore
For, what to some, would be a chore.
In giving it your all,
Plus duetting with Ball
Creating true "esprit de corps"!
Nigel Milne (Chandos 68)

We salute you Captain Tom Moore,
For your stoicism in both peacetime and war,
From the jungles of Burma,
To your garden during Corona,
Hurrah! and Bravo! from our core.
Adam MacKinnon (Chandos 80)

We salute you Captain Tom Moore,
Humanity is at your core.
Ten years of austerity
Depleted our PPE;
Well, we got what we voted for.
Chris Hutber (Chandos 87)
